

SOS! Why is my Child Behaving This Way?

Behavior tips for parents!

Dealing with concerning behaviors can be difficult for parents of children with special needs to navigate at home.

This Q&A style workshop will help parents get answers! Taught by a Behavior Specialist, parents will learn life-changing techniques that will explain how to connect with their child with special needs while at the same time teach them appropriate behaviors. It's a workshop bound to help both parents and children have more success at home!
